

Leadership Essay

Firstly, The Quality of Leading People is called as Leadership. Perhaps, it is counted in one of the most important facets of life. First of all, leadership has also played a major and vital importance in heading to the human civility development.

Neither a group nor an organisation can get success without a good leadership of its leader, in other words head. In addition, not everyone include leadership quality, because an effective leadership needs some definite necessary features and typical properties.

Leadership Qualities

At first, a leader must have a Strong Confidence, because it is the power, which ensures a leader to rely on his decision. A Self-confidence lacking person can never become a good leader.

He / she must be enough confident to make sure that others are following him, and his decisions are correct. If a supreme leader is himself unsure, how can the people have desire to follow him?

Another noticeable Leadership Quality is Honesty and Integrity. For earning the followers love, these two aspects, honesty and integrity are very important. Perhaps, every leadership that loses trust and faith is fail.

First of all, for winning the people's trust, honesty is essential. Due to an immoral leader, people will also not work with full effort.

Inspirational Strength is The Third Leadership Quality. For followers, a leader must be a role model and should inspire others. A leader must never lose hope in difficult situations also, and motivate others whenever possible.

If a leader is himself hopeless, how can he / she inspire and motivate others to support his decision or himself.

For a good leader, Better Communication Skills is a must, because bad communication spreads wrong messages to followers and the community. Moreover, the work rate will be enhanced by good communication skills. Furthermore, mistakes will be reduced by followers.

A good leader should be an Excellent Innovator. In his works, he has to show a creative attitude. Above all, innovation is a guarantee of a group or innovation survival. This is because, progress is impossible without creative and positive thinking.

Decision Making is another important quality. Better decision making by the leader makes sure the success of the entire group. The follower's effort will not matter, if the leader makes bad and poor decisions.

Leadership Examples

Abraham Lincoln was a classic instance for a good leader. Most notable, in the United States (USA), he abolished the slavery system. As a result, he made his many enemies, however, he was a man of grand confidence. In addition, his immense struggle against slavery surely became an inspiration for others.

Sir Winston Churchill was another notable leader. He was a great patriotic Englishman. Most notable, he was extremely inspirational and led Britain in the Second World War. He inspired and motivated Britain to fight against Nazi Germany. At a hopeless time for the entire country, his communication skills inspired the country.

The third example of a great leader is Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela, who was a South-African anti-apartheid revolutionary, philanthropist, and political leader. In addition, he also served as President of South Africa from 1994 until 1999.

He was the first black head of state of the country and a fully elected representative by a democratic election.

My Favourite Leader

There were many excellent examples of leaders born in the world, but My Favourite is Mahatma Gandhi. He had a firm belief on non-violence. He forced the British and made them to leave India, through his brilliant and superb leadership skills.

Perhaps, I think this was the most unique independence struggle, because Bapu or Gandhiji got freedom based on non-violence without performing any violence and usage of weapons.

In conclusion, probably, every step of life requires Leadership. Good Leadership is the key to the door of success, however, poor leadership is a guarantee to failure. Therefore, good leaders are the ones who make the world go round.

FAQs on Leadership Essay

Q1. "What is Leadership?"

A1. Firstly, The Quality of Leading People is called as Leadership. Perhaps, it is counted in one of the most important facets of life. First of all, leadership has also played a major and vital importance in heading to the human civility development.

Q2. "List Some Leadership Qualities?"

A2. Some Leadership Qualities are:

- 1. Strong Confidence
- 2. Honesty and Integrity
- 3. Inspirational Strength
- 4. Better Communication Skills
- 5. Excellent Innovator
- 6. Decision Making

Q3. "List Some Leadership Examples?"

A3. Some Leadership Examples are:

- 1. Abraham Lincoln
- 2. Mahatma Gandhi
- 3. Sir Winston Churchill
- 4. Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela

What do you think?

Q1. “Who is Your Favourite Leader?”

Answer this question below in the Comment Box below.

I hope that you liked my Essay so, please leave a comment below in the comment box. Moreover, if you have any queries you can ask me by doing comment below in the comment box, I will try my best to answer you quickly.

This “Easy Deforestation Essay in English” will develop a new Foundation to write an essay in every student. For more essays for students and kids, explore here more.

Every Time is Writing Time

By writing and reading Essays, we can improve our writing, writing speed, knowledge, etc. because by this our mind and hands work combined. We can learn new and good things by writing and reading Essays. Therefore, why are you waiting for?